

Junior economist workshop on migration research

The Ifo Center of Excellence for Migration and Integration Research (CEMIR) is organizing a junior economist workshop on migration research to be held on 16 & 17 June 2017 at the Ifo Institute in Munich, Germany. The keynote lecture is given by George J. Borjas, Harvard University.

Interested Ph.D. students, post docs and assistant professors in economics with a firm interest in the field of migration are invited to submit a research paper they would like to present (plus a CV) to nikolka@ifo.de by 30 April 2017. Decisions on acceptance are made by 10 May.

There are no participation fees and travel expenses are covered.

Workshop organizers: Yvonne Giesing, Till Nikolka and Panu Poutvaara

For further information on this workshop, please contact Till Nikolka (nikolka@ifo.de).