

MACIMIDE

Annual Work Conference 2023

Programme

This year, the Maastricht Centre for Citizenship, Migration and Development (MACIMIDE) celebrates its 10th Anniversary on the occasion of its Annual Work Conference, 22 September 2023. MACIMIDE is Maastricht University's interdisciplinary research center for interfaculty collaboration in the fields of migration, mobility, citizenship, development, and family life. Each year MACIMIDE organizes an Annual Work Conference where researchers present and discuss their work around diverse research themes cutting across the disciplinary fields represented by the faculties and schools of Maastricht University.

Date: Friday 22 September 2023

Venue: Belvédère, Fenikshof 1, 6211AX Maastricht

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

8.30 – 9.00	REGISTRATION/COFFEE
9.00 – 10.30	WELCOME and KEYNOTE KEYNOTE LECTURE: TBC
10.30 – 10.45	COFFEE BREAK
10.45 – 12.15	PANEL SESSION 1a: Human capital and human development in migration Devrim Dumludag & Ozge Gokdemir 'Sense of Belonging and Life Satisfaction among Turkish Immigrants in the Netherlands' Lalaine Siruno 'Human Development Trajectories of Regularised Filipino Migrant Domestic Workers in the Netherlands' Marrit Westerweel 'Impact of the COVID-19 pandemic related school closures on minor asylum seekers and minor status holders in Belgium and the Netherlands' Davit Adunts & Bohdana Kurylo 'Migration Opportunities and Human Capital Investment Decisions: Evidence from Ukraine' Chair: TBD Discussant: TBD	PANEL SESSION 1b: Institutions and solidarity Alexander Erickson, Olivia Issa & Brittany Troupe 'Sharing Information on Education across Resettlement Agencies, Nonprofits, Schools, and Community Spaces for Refugee Students' Joelle Badran 'The unaccompanied refugee minors' experiences of solidarity in their everyday social life' Polina Ivanova & Sabine Krajewski 'Leadership in Migrant Support Organisations: International Student Leaders in Japan and Australia' Tobias Hillenbrand 'The role of humanitarian concern in shaping solidarity towards refugees' Chair: TBD Discussant: TBD
12.15 – 13.30	LUNCH

13.30 – 15.00	PANEL SESSION 2a: Controlling and contesting (im)mobility Cecilia Schenetti ‘Why do European states implement migration information campaigns in Senegal?’ Maha Naami, Valentina Mazzucato & Katie Kuschminder ‘Embodying the ‘meanwhile’: the impact of future perspectives on the present of North African Unaccompanied Minors in the Netherlands’ Manisha Mukherjee, Sonja Fransen & Melissa Siegel ‘Scorching Heat and Shrinking Horizons: The Impact of Rising Temperatures on Marriages and Migration in Rural India’ Alexander Hunns, Sonja Fransen & Talitha Dubow ‘Conceptualising refugee climate vulnerability to climate change’ Chair: TBD Discussant: TBD	PANEL SESSION 2b: Labour migration and economic integration Amy Azhar ‘Protecting the Labor Rights of Migrant Workers: Can FTAs function as an Appropriate Instrument?’ Anastasia Blouchoutzi & Georgios Tsaples ‘Migrant Labor Market Integration Policy Design: An Exploratory Modeling and Analysis Approach’ Giacomo Boffi, Eduard Suari-Andreu & Olaf van Vliet ‘The net fiscal position of migrants in Europe: trends and insights’ Abiola Oyebanjo ‘The Americana: Does signaling “foreignness” reduce the benefit of transnational education of returnees? Evidence from Nigeria’ Chair: TBD Discussant: TBD
15.00 – 15.30 COFFEE BREAK
15.30 – 17.00	WORKSHOP 3a: Towards a local policy-practitioner-research nexus Organizers: Tobias Hillenbrand and Talitha Dubow As migration researchers, we are commonly motivated to produce and mobilise knowledge in pursuit of positive social impact. Local governments and coalitions, who are at the frontline of addressing complex migration phenomena, are taking an increasingly prominent role in the governance of migration. In this workshop we invite local policymakers and practitioners to discuss their work, share their insights on current migration processes in and around Maastricht, and discuss how we, as migration researchers, teachers and members of a diverse local community, can contribute to efforts to promote inclusion and wellbeing.	PANEL SESSION 3b: Transnational households and remittances Joma Edward Ronden, Lauren Wagner & Pasveer Bernike ‘My home is where I live: caring for remittance houses in Ghana’ Michaella Vanore & Laura Cleton ‘Diaspora for development? The reverse social remittances generated by IOM’s diaspora for development program’ Ana Isabel López García ‘Migrant remittances and the financing of local public goods’ Basanta Prasad Adhikari, Ramesh Adhikari, Sarad Chendra Kafle & Suraj Neupane ‘The impact of mother international migration to the left behind girls at Chitwan district Nepal’
17.00 – 19.00 CLOSING RECEPTION Please join us for drinks and canapés

This conference has received funding from The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, the Faculty of Law and the School of Business and Economics of Maastricht University.